

Food Allergy Canada

National Conference

#FoodAllergyFuture

Creating a better future

Saturday, May 30, 2020

8:30am - 5:00pm

Exhibit hall: 7:45am - 6:00pm

Ontario Science Centre

Toronto, Ontario

Live-stream

From anywhere

Registration

IN-PERSON

$100/person

LIVE-STREAM

$90/device

YOUTH SESSIONS - HALF DAY

$25/youth (TWO SESSIONS: AGES 7-11 & AGES 12-17)

YOUTH SESSION - HALF DAY + AFTERNOON ACTIVITY

$35/youth (AGES 7-11)

If you have financial challenges and require a reduced rate or exemption, please call us at 1866 785-5660.

For details visit

foodallergycanada.ca/2020conference

MORNING SESSIONS

The science behind food allergy

Dr. Elissa Abrams, MD, FRCPC

The madness behind the numbers - accurate diagnosis, is it possible?

Dr. Edmond Chan, MD, FRCPC

The truth behind immunotherapy, is it right for you?

Dr. Julia Upton, MD, FRCPC, MPH

The future outlook: What's to come in the world of therapies

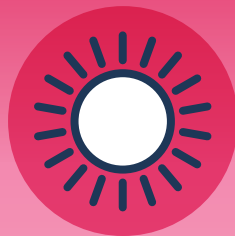

Dr. Cecilia Berin, PhD

Youth sessions

Various speakers and experts

Educational and empowering half-day sessions for youth with food allergy.

AFTERNOON SESSIONS

When do I use epinephrine?

Dr. Moshe Ben-Shoshan, MD, MSc

The "may contain" challenge

Panel discussion:

Dr. Susan Waserman, MSc, MD, FRCPC

Stephen Norman

Director, Bureau of Chemical Safety
Food Directorate, Health Canada

Dr. Jason Hlywka, PhD

Corporate Global Toxicology
Scientific & Regulatory Affairs
The Kraft Heinz Company

SPECIAL GUEST!

Timothy Caulfield
Professor of Health Law & Science Policy
University of Alberta

Role of science in creating a better future

Professor Caulfield will kick-off the conference with a captivating talk on the importance of science in creating a better food allergy future.

